

Robert Pawloski teaches Math and Career Academy at Sparta High School. He has been an educator for 25 years and is currently the MAEO Board Treasurer. Rob believes that Alternative Education is all about chances. Sometimes students get it the first time and sometimes it takes a little bit longer; patience and perseverance is paramount. He is a part of MAEO because it is an organization that provides the voice for the students and staff working to provide those extra chances.