

Paul Shanks

Paul works at the Bridge Alternative High School in Brighton, MI. There he serves as the Restorative Practices Coordinator and teaches social studies. He also brings everyone's favorite employee Martha, the school's social emotional learning dog, to school with him each day.

Paul enjoys working in alternative education because it allows for a more individualized approach to each students' education, growth and development.