

Sarah Orr

Sarah is in her 5th year at Renaissance High School as their instructional aide, basketball coach, and librarian. Sarah is also responsible for the all virtual students in her building. Sarah joined the board to help reach out and promote the positive things alternative education offers to the many alternative students. Sarah is very passionate about MAEO's STARS program and assists with events when possible. Sarah is looking forward to serving a bigger role on this years board as their Vice President. She loves to quote Dr. Seuss in saying "Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not."
