

John Micsak MA

Since 1977, John has worked with thousands of at risk youth, primarily in residential and community-based programs as well as training professionals on a national level. John acts as a consultant to schools, families, mental health and legal organizations providing the latest approaches from neuro-physiological research, attachment research and traumatology. Mr. Micsak was selected 2009 Consultant of the Year by the National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children. John is the author of "Healing the Inside Child: Groundbreaking Approaches with Stressed and Traumatized Youth" and provides intensive workshops for schools and organizations.