

Rhonda Marcum

I am Rhonda Marcum, President of MAEO. I am the Education Program Coordinator with Marshall Public Schools at Michigan Youth Challenge Academy and Michigan Job Challenge Program, both in Battle Creek, Michigan. These are 22 week quasi-military residential programs specializing in at-risk students. There are several education pathways available for students. I have my Ph.D. in Education and Technology, a Master's in Curriculum and Instruction, and Bachelor's of Science in Biology, Chemistry, and Criminology through Eastern Michigan University. I have been involved with the alternative education system for 14 years as a teacher and administrator. I can be reached at
