

Rhonda L. Phillips, PhD is currently the Education Coordinator for the Marshall Public Schools/Michigan Youth Challenge Academy & Michigan Job Challenge Program. For the last 12 year, Rhonda has been working in the field of education and feels that alternative education provides services to all students, no matter the circumstances or their past. We are looking to the future and MAEO is an organization in which to collaborate, cooperate, and care with like-minded educators.