

I have been teaching for 18 years. I have gone from 9 years of teaching middle school math/art in Maryland, to moving back home to Michigan to teach special education 7-12 for three years. I have spent the last 6 years at Davison Alternative Education, teaching algebra and visual art. I currently have an active role as head teacher here and work closely with administration on various school improvement initiatives.