

Tom Moore has served as the Director of White Lake Area Community Education (WLACE) in Whitehall Michigan since 2012.

WLACE partners with six school districts in Muskegon and Oceana counties providing; Alternative Education, Early Childhood, Adult Education, Enrichment and Home School programs to approximately 1,000 learners each day.

Tom has a strong interest in experiential and alternative education and believes that all learners can succeed when provided with the right opportunities.

Born and raised in Adelaide Australia, Tom attended the University of South Australia where he earned a degree in Education. He has a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Western Michigan University and is currently enrolled in a graduate program in Diversity, Social Justice and Inclusion at the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs.

Tom serves as the MAEO Treasurer.